

Ronald McDonald House's 'Walk for Kids' Raises $105,000

Photo courtesy Pasadena Ronald McDonald House

Participants in the recent Pasadena Ronald McDonald House "Walk For Kids" stroll in front of Huntington Hospital. Huntington Hospital won the "most spirited team" honor as its members combined to raise more than $5,800.

The Pasadena Ronald McDonald House "Walk for Kids" raised more than $105,000, as more than 750 participants also enjoyed entertainment. Highlights included music from ALT 98.7, fire trucks, a miniature horse, a bounce house and obstacle course, an appearance by L.A. Laker Girls, food trucks, and demonstrations from local dance studios and martial arts.

Forty-nine teams registered, with the top fundraising team being Firehouse 35, which raised more than $7,000. The top individual fundraiser, Christopher Ramstead, was a team member of Firehouse 35 and raised more than $5,000. The most spirited team was Huntington Hospital, which featured more than 100 walkers.

The event was co-chaired by Christopher Felton and Kathryn Winslow. Major supporters included co-sponsor Pasadena City Councilman Steve Madison and gold sponsor Jacobs Engineering.

"Thank you again to all of our generous and dedicated supporters who have helped provide a 'home away from home' for families of seriously ill children who are receiving care in Southern California," an event spokesperson said.

For more information about the Pasadena Ronald McDonald House, visit rmhcsc.org/pasadena or call (626) 585-1588.