The Loma Linda Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for families of children with illnesses or injuries receiving medical treatment at Loma Linda University Children's Hospital and other nearby medical facilities.

- The First Ronald McDonald House opened in 1974 with the renovation of an older home near Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Since then, more than 340 houses in 35 countries and regions, (176 in the U.S.) have been built around the world.
- The Loma Linda Ronald McDonald House opened on September 11, 1996.
- The Loma Linda Ronald McDonald House can accommodate 24 families nightly.
- More than 1,400 families were served in 2014, checking in over 4,616 people.
- The average length of stay for families is seven days.
- Funds to operate the House come from contributions through individual gifts, special events, corporate donations, foundation grants, memorial and honorary gifts.
- Support has been received through the efforts of McDonald's Operators Association of Southern California and McDonald's Corporation, as well as the local and national chapters of Ronald McDonald House Charities.
- Volunteers donate nearly 10,000 hours of service annually.
