The Inland Empire Ronald McDonald House is a home away from home for families of children with illnesses or injuries receiving medical treatment at Loma Linda University Children's Hospital and other nearby medical facilities. Our mission is to provide comfort, care and support to children and families in Southern California.

- ❖ The First Ronald McDonald House opened in 1974 with the renovation of an older home near Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.
- ❖ There are currently more than 358 houses in 42 countries and regions around the world (179 in the U.S.).
- ❖ The Inland Empire Ronald McDonald House opened on September 11, 1996.
- ❖ The Inland Empire Ronald McDonald House, located in Loma Linda, can accommodate 54 families nightly.
- ❖ Since opening, more than 21,000 families have stayed at the Inland Empire House.
- ❖ The average length of stay for families is seven days.
- ❖ Funds to operate the House come from contributions through individual gifts, special events, corporate donations, foundation grants, memorial and honorary gifts.
- ❖ Support has been received through the efforts of McDonald's Operators Association of Southern California and McDonald's Corporation, as well as the local and national chapters of Ronald McDonald House Charities.
- ❖ Volunteers donate nearly 11,000 hours of service annually.
